

How to Prepare for a Hard Freeze

1. Trickle flow both hot and cold water from at least one faucet inside the house. Trickle is more than a drip...it's a steady stream of water until it hits the bowl of the sink.
2. Turn on the heat at the thermostat and set the temperature to at least 60°F.
3. If you will not be at the house to watch after this, please text David.